THE TEXICO-TUCUMCARI ROAD

The advertised mass meeting of citizens in the interest of the Texico-Tucumcari railroad took place Wednesday afternoon and was thoroughly representative of Texico's business men. The committee appointed to confer with the business men of Tucumcari made their formal report covering their labors, which briefly stated is that the people of Tucumcari are heartily with us in the matter and have promised their support, both moral and financial.

Great enthusiasm prevailed and a subscription list was opened with the intention of raising funds for a preliminary survey, pointing out the path leading to success with the movement of the line to be built and about $700 was subscribed within a few minutes.

Captain Kindred, who presided, urged upon all present the necessity of keeping up the work at high pressure.

S. A. Temple gave rough estimates of the cost of grading work on the eighty miles, which he said would cost about $150,000, which he divided as follows: He considered a two-foot grade necessary for the first forty miles of the route and a four-foot grade for the finish. The sum averaged $1,800 a mile.

Several minor accounts incident upon the calling of the meeting were met by popular subscription. —Texico Democrat.

We learn that J. M. Collison has leased the Tucumcari Hotel. He has turned the entire house into a rooming or lodging house. The name TUCUMCARI for this handsome and up-to-date hostelry should be appreciated and respected.
